

Menglong (Anthony) Zhu, Esq.

Associate

Business & Corporate Law, Business Immigration

Email: menglongzhu@junwanglaw.com

Mr. Zhu focuses in Corporate Law and Mergers and Acquisitions. His practice encompasses representing both domestic and foreign corporations in various aspects such as mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance, due diligence, compliance, commercial lending, joint ventures, and dispute resolution. With a wealth of experience, he is adept at providing comprehensive guidance on cross-border transactions between China and the U.S.

Additionally, Mr. Zhu offers business immigration services tailored to the needs of founders or executives of growing businesses. This includes assisting with filings with the USCIS to classify individuals as possessing extraordinary or exceptional abilities.

Before joining the Firm, Mr. Zhu gained valuable experience working at the New York branch of a leading Chinese law firm. He also accumulated years of practice experience in China prior to his relocation to the United States.

Bar Admission

New York
China

Education

LL.M Boston University School of Law (Banking and Financial Law)
LL.B. Jinan University
School of Law

Membership

New York State Bar
Association
Asian American Bar
Association of New York
Association

Some Major Projects that Mr. Zhu Participated in Include

- Conducted compliance risk assessment and established Compliance Program for the U.S. subsidiary of a Chinese state-owned telecommunications company
- For the purpose of major asset restructuring of a listed company in Liaoning, China (the transaction amount is over RMB 1 billion), conducted due diligence on its U.S. subsidiary (a leading manufacturer of disinfection and sterilization products) and assessed CFIUS and antitrust filing requirement
- For the purpose of acquisition of a U.S. medical company by a listed company in Shanghai, China (the transaction amount is approximately US$300 million), conducted due diligence on the U.S. target company and CFIUS and antitrust filings
- Advised a technology company in Zhejiang, China on due diligence, tax issues, corporate governance, and other matters for its U.S. subsidiaries in several States
- Advised a four-star hotel in Financial District, Manhattan on mortgage loans
- Provided commercial loan and refinancing legal services numerous times for the New York branch of a Chinese state-owned commercial bank

- Advised on a share purchase transaction of a Nasdaq-listed company
- Conducted due diligence on an NYSE-listed company for the purpose of guaranteeing a loan for a commercial bank in Fujian, China
- Conducted due diligence on the U.S. subsidiary of a company in Shandong, China for IPO purposes
- Advised on the restructuring transaction of an educational institution in New York
- Advised on the restructuring transaction of a clothing enterprise headquartered in New York
- Provided external counsel services for a Sino-US biopharmaceutical joint venture in Guangdong, China
- Represented the Chinese shareholder in handling equity disputes in a Sino-foreign technology joint venture in Jiangxi, China
- Issued legal opinions on securities compliance for a number of Chinese listed companies, including YGSOFT Inc., Zhuhai Port Holdings Group Co., Ltd., Guangdong Holdings Co., Ltd., etc.

