

Yunyu (Lola) Wang, Esq.

Associate

Business Immigration, Art & Entertainment Law

Email: yunyuwang@junwanglaw.com

Ms. Wang specializes in providing business immigration services to ultra-high-net-worth individuals and those with extraordinary skills in various fields such as arts, finance, media, and technology. She possesses profound expertise and extensive experience in visa categories like O-1, EB-1A, and NIW. Her professional services include representing clients for legal motions to reopen/reconsider/appeal with the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) and its Administrative Appeals Office (AAO).

In the field of Art & Entertainment Law, she provides legal services to individual artists (and their studios), and creative professionals on matters such as company formation, contract drafting and review, copyright & trademarks registration. She also assists her clients in establishing non-profit organizations.

Prior to joining the Firm, Ms. Wang worked at a premier Chinese law firm, serving numerous listed companies and state-owned enterprises.

Bar Admission

New York
China

Education

LL.M. Columbia University School of Law
LL.B. East China University of Political Science and Law

Membership

New York State Bar Association