

Zhenbo Wang

Of Counsel

China Practice

Email: wangzhenbo@yuanhepartners.com

Mr. Zhenbo Wang specializes in international trade, maritime affairs, and corporate compliance.

Mr. Wang focuses on dispute resolution in the fields of international trade and maritime affairs, having represented or been involved in numerous cases handled by maritime courts worldwide and major arbitration institutions both domestically and internationally. His cases include international trade, maritime affairs, ship financing, marine insurance, international factoring, and he excels particularly in handling complex disputes such as letters of credit, marine insurance, ship financing, and ship construction. With a background in state-owned enterprises, Mr. Wang has served as the General Manager of the Legal Department at Sinochem International Logistics Co., Ltd. His extensive experience includes detailed research and management of internal governance, compliance system establishment, and risk management for large enterprises. He has led and participated in cross-border mergers and acquisitions involving companies from the United States, Japan, Singapore, and other countries. Mr. Wang also provides commercial dispute resolution and compliance legal services to industries such as consumer goods, internet, medical aesthetics, chemicals, finance, construction, and real estate.

Mr. Wang is a partner at Yuanhe & Twelve Tables and an of counsel of Jun Wang & Associates. He graduated from the School of Law at Dalian Maritime University with a bachelor's degree in international economic law, and later earned a master's degree in law from the University of Southampton in the United Kingdom. Mr. Wang has also studied computer science and technology at Shanghai Jiao Tong University. He is a member of the International Factoring Task Force of the Commercial Factoring Committee of China Association of Trade in Services and an expert on the Polar Equipment Import Review Panel of China.